

BOTH WOMEN HELD IN BAIL OF $5,000

Charge of Felonious Assault Against Ethel Conrad and Lillian Graham.

New York, July 11.—Ethel Conrad and Lillian Graham, who June 6 shot W. E. Stokes, the millionaire hotel man, in their apartment, were held in $5,000 bail to-day for the grand jury on a charge of felonious assault.

Magistrate Preschl in deciding to hold the two girls for the grand jury stated that he would ignore the element of scandal in the case. He said a prima facie case had been made out, and that no defense had been offered, and therefore there was nothing left for him to do but to hold the young women.

Robert W. Moore, of counsel for the girls, had expected the case to go to the grand jury, and for this reason refused to put either of his clients on the stand, but contented himself with trying to show that Stokes went to the apartment of the young women to get possession of certain letters and that the girls shot in self-defense.

Gleason Copies Letters. Following this line to-day, he drew from A. H. Gleason, Stokes's personal counsel, the admission that Gleason had had the letters in his possession and had made copies of them before turning them over to the district attorney. Gleason, however, denied that he had withheld any of the letters.

Wilford Hart, a negro elevator boy, called by the defense, proved a discomfiting witness. He had been expected to testify that Stokes had asked to be taken to the girls' apartment unannounced. On the contrary, he said that earlier in the evening Miss Graham had told him she expected a caller. Attorney Moore broadly intimated that the witness had been tampered with.

DISAGREES WITH STATE'S SENATOR

Democratic Chairman Eller Refers to Simmons's Recent Speech.

Richmond, N. C., July 11.—State Democratic Chairman Eller, in a telegraphic letter, to-night refers to the States Senator Simmons's references to him and the attitude of the State and Democratic headquarters which he declared in his speech justified him (Simmons) in his position on lumber. Mr. Eller declared that he was sorry for campaign purposes gotten up by the man who had charge of the "lumber" business. He said that he was a lumber man actively engaged in the business.

Mr. Eller declared that he was sorry for campaign purposes gotten up by the man who had charge of the "lumber" business. He said that he was a lumber man actively engaged in the business.

That the Republican party should have the making of the new tariff free lumber and protected machinery might be expected. If the Democrats write it free lumber and free machinery, it will be a promise made to the people under the Democratic write the tariff law.

Did Not Profit by Speculations

Minneapolis, Minn., July 11.—As a result of the belief that Ames Pettit, of Chicago, general manager of the Peavey Grain Company, who was drowned in Lake Michigan on Saturday, was short approximately $1,000,000, lost in speculation, and said by officials of the Peavey interests to have been in direct violation of the instructions of the company met to-day at the F. H. Peavey & Company's offices, a statement issued after the meeting says:

On Saturday afternoon, July 8, following the death of James Pettit, a representative of F. H. Peavey & Company, who had been sent to Chicago to assist in the office of the Peavey Grain Company, during Mr. Pettit's illness, discovered that certain unauthorized and concealed speculations had been going on in no way protected by the knowledge of F. H. Peavey & Company, and in direct violation of the well known policy of the Peavey interests.

MECCA FOR SHRINERS

Suggestion That Home Be Provided for Annual Imperial Council.

Richmond, N. Y., July 11.—With Shriners present from all parts of the country, Canada, the Hawaiian Islands and even from the Philippines, the thirty-seventh annual session of the Imperial Council, Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, assembled in Convention Hall to-day. The doors were thrown open to the public, and Imperial Potentate Fred A. Hines, of Los Angeles, Cal., called the council to order. Volunteering speeches were made by Mayor Edgerton and two Shriners in behalf of the city and the State by Governor Thomas E. Conway.

The two matters of greatest general interest before the council are the election of officers and the selection of the next meeting place of the Imperial Council. There apparently is no question as to the selection of the next meeting place, which will be the annual imperial potentate, J. Frank Treat, of North Dakota.

That the next convention of the order will be held in Baltimore and Los Angeles have entered the lists, with Portland, Ore., a dark horse. San Francisco also wants the next Imperial Council.

Death of Merritt Gilpin. J. Merritt Gilpin, 117, died at his home in London, England, on July 10, after a long illness. He was a prominent figure in the London stock market and had been a member of the House of Commons.

Lenox Focused on River to Picture Aquatic Feats While He Trained.

New York, July 11.—A real tragedy was recorded on the film of a moving picture machine here late to-day. As Albert Lenox, actor and expert swimmer and diver, leaped from a boat on a Staten Island pier, the machine was set in motion, its lens focused on the bubbling surface of the pond where he had disappeared to picture his aquatic feats as he came to the surface. The moments passed and the widening circles from the impact of the dive touched the shores.

WILL BE TAFT'S GROWING GLORY

Atlantic City, N. J., July 11.—"If Taft succeeds in winning his campaign for universal peace he will win with it a place among the foremost statesmen of the world. It will be the crowning glory of his achievements," declared former Vice-President C. W. Fairbanks before the Christian Endeavorers to-night. "Our great nation by its widespread influence in China and Korea and similarly situated countries," he added, "has downed absolutism, and paved the way for general adoption of constitutional government."

Among the several resolutions introduced at the convention to-night and adopted was one which provided for a country-wide anti-slavery campaign, the slogan of which will be "A slaveless nation by the Fourth of July, 1920."

The other resolutions comprehended an unqualified endorsement of the absolute stand taken by President Taft in his advocacy of peace, and especially of the peace treaty between Great Britain and the United States; endorsement of President Francis E. Clark's suggestion looking toward international organization of the Christian Endeavor Society; commendation of the Postmaster-General's action in closing post-offices on Sunday; the urging of Sunday law enforcement of the religious forward movement; recommendations that Christian Endeavorers take a lead in the safe and sane Fourth of July idea; committing the Christian Endeavor societies to the recognition that "neither in private morals nor in the public prosecution of law-breakers is there the slightest apology for the existence of a double standard."

The convention this afternoon secured pledges for $10,000 of the $25,000 fund they expect to raise before the close of the meetings here to add to a fund of $175,000 already secured for the International headquarters building at Boston.

REVISION OF COMPACT BY ENGLAND AND JAPAN

Tokio, July 11.—A revision of the Anglo-Japanese alliance is regarded as the inevitable outcome of the Anglo-American arbitration treaty. There is reason to believe that negotiations for such a revision have been going on for several weeks. It is reported that Great Britain proposes to modify the clause providing for mutual assistance in the event of war, making the provision inapplicable in the event that either party to the alliance is fighting a nation with whom the other has concluded a general arbitration treaty.

It is understood that Japan readily agreed to this proposition, and the Associated Press is informed that the readiness of the Japanese government to accept the suggestion was due to its entire confidence that Japan would never be at war with either the United States or England.

High School Work is Great Factor

Annual Report by Committee to National Education Association.

San Francisco, Cal., July 11.—The high schools of the United States were held up as the world's greatest factors for democratic living at to-day's session of the National Education Association.

The assertion came in the report of the department on high schools and was in line with the report made last year by the department on high schools that the colleges revise their entrance requirements in such a way that the high schools meet modern needs. The report also is the criticism of the Carnegie Foundation that American education is suffering from the attempt to teach too many subjects to the same student at the same time. It says:

High School Instruction.

"Broad vocational instructions should find place in the high school to prepare for efficiency.

SUIT IS NOW PENDING

Result of Conference Will Determine Government's Next Move.

Washington, July 11.—The Department of Justice is watching for the result of the so-called Atlantic Conference of North Atlantic Steamship Lines now being held in London. The conference will determine if the agreement for reducing immigrant traffic shall be renewed.

The Atlantic conference is popularly called the steamship trust. An injunction suit brought by the government under the Sherman anti-trust law is now pending against it, but there is said to be a difference of opinion between government officials as to the jurisdiction of the courts of the United States.

It is claimed in the government's suit that the lines represented in the Atlantic conference carry more than 90 per cent of the average traffic between Europe and the United States, and that 75 per cent of that traffic is monopolized and restricted in violation of law. The government's next move probably will be determined by the result of the conference.

OBITUARY

Funeral of James R. White.

Early in August last the American ambassador and the Chilean minister at London presented to the British Foreign Office a case on the Alopai claim, which had been submitted to King George as arbitrator. The claim is based upon loan money advanced to the Bolivian government in 1910. The United States and Chile agreed to submit the case to the late King Edward, and after his death to his successor, King George. The claim was submitted in London to be paid over in case the award was in favor of the American claimants.
